

Legrand and Possum Extend Exclusive Agreement for NOVO

5th March 2024, Possum Head Office, Aylesbury

Building on 14 successful years as partners, Possum and Legrand Care are delighted to announce they have extended their current agreement.

Under the contract extension, Possum continues as the exclusive reseller for the NOVO range of Telecare products in the UK & Ireland.

Managing Director for Possum, Philip Robinson says, "Possum is an independent British company. Our strengths are that we provide a high level of technical and customer support for customers using the NOVO home terminal and its accessories. We are flexible, honest and responsive. We look forward to supporting our customers on the digital journey going forward."

Legrand Care's Deputy Chief Executive Officer, Arturo Perez-Kramer says, "Legrand Care has increased significantly the production capacity for the NOVO range of digital products to support growing demand in the UK and Europe. Legrand's investment in large scale manufacturing in our factories will ensure high quality and reliable products. Legrand's commitment to research and development also supports an exciting pipeline of new products for the future."

If you would like to find out more, please visit our website www.possum.co.uk and get in touch.